WHAG9 SIDE EVENT

ACHIEVING AFFORDABLE ACCESS TO HEALTH TECHNOLOGIES

Tuesday, 24 May, 2016 | 17:45–18:45
Room IX, Palais des Nations, Geneva

Panellists:
David Reddy, CEO, Medicines for Malaria Venture
Using the Product Development Partnership model to address R&D gaps for poverty-related diseases

Christopher Elias, President, Global Development Program, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
Exploring the current challenges of achieving affordable access to health technologies for poverty-related diseases

Herbert Barnard, Director, International Affairs, Ministry of Health, Government of The Netherlands
Presentation title to be confirmed

How can the global biomedical R&D system work better for all?

Moderator:
Dr Anban Pillay, Deputy Director General, Health Regulation & Compliance, National Department of Health, Government of South Africa

For more information, contact:
Tessel Mellema | Health Action International | tessel@haiweb.org
Christina do Paço | Medicines for Malaria Venture | dopacoc@mmv.org

Co-organised by: